NOTES

*	Limited enrollment
AA	By invitation only. If a more convenient day/time can be found to hold the class, the class meeting will be changed to that day/time.
ALW	Students may not take both Advanced Legal Writing: Practical Skills and Advanced Legal Writing: Litigation Drafting either in the same year or in different years due to overlap of coverage.
AdvT	Meets the School's Advanced Torts graduation requirement.
BCC	Enrollment in the Bankruptcy Court Clerkship Program is limited to students who have completed both Secured Transactions and Debtors & Creditors' Rights. Permission to enroll is needed from the instructor. Submit resume and letter of interest to Professor Ferguson as soon as possible. Permission should be initialed by the professor on the course enrollment form or drop/add form.
CFSC	Permission of instructor is needed to enroll. Provide statement of interest and resume to Professor Glesner Fines or Professor Kisthardt. Permission should be initialed by the professor on the course enrollment form or drop/add form. Family law is not a prerequisite for the Child & Family Services clinic.
CL	Cross listed with the School of Education. Residency course.
Comp	Class sessions will not be held the entire semester. See the professor's elective course information "sheet" on the web..
DPC	Permission of instructor is needed to enroll. Provide statement of interest to Dean Suni. Permission should be initialed by Dean Suni on the course enrollment form or drop/add form.

EL	Class will meet for five sessions between October and April (specific dates TBA). Students enrolled in the course must attend at least 4 of the sessions and complete all coursework for those sessions to receive credit for the course. Students may attend all sessions.
Ent	Entrepreneurial Law and Practice Clinic. Only a limited number of students will be accepted. Please see Elizabeth Johnson or Bridget Lee, secretaries to Professors Hood and Sharp for a form expressing interest in enrolling in the clinic.
EPD	Since this course requires an understanding of basic estate and gift tax, it is only open to students who have taken Federal Estate & Gift Tax or the 4 hour Estates & Trusts course.
FamCC	Clerkship with Judge of Family Court. Permission of faculty member is needed to enroll. Provide statement of interest and resume to Professor Glesner Fines or Prof Kisthardt. Permission should be initialed by the professor on the course enrollment form or drop/add form.
FCC	Clerkship with a judge or magistrate of the U.S. District Court or the Court of Appeals. Limited to 2L or 3L students with at least a 3.0 GPA. Submit statement of interest, resume and transcript to Nicole Francis by November 10. Students will be contacted by the judges for interviews and selection. Selected students must also meet with Professor Achtenberg during the clinic semester, the faculty supervisor of the clinic. Please see Professor Achtenberg for more detail regarding when sessions will be held, etc.
First	Meets first half of semester only.
FPD	Students must meet eligibility requirements and be certified in compliance with Local Federal Rules of Court. Basically this requires being in good standing and having completed three semesters of course work. Although Dean Berman supervises the clinic, Professor Eckhardt coordinates student selection. Permission of Professor Eckhardt is, therefore, required to enroll. Permission should be initialed by Professor Eckhardt on the course enrollment form or drop/add form
I	Independent study, including writing projects under faculty supervision. Do not use this course for meeting the R&W requirement; use 746 instead. See R&W note.
J	The course satisfies the jurisprudential requirement.
LLM	Generally, only LL.M. (Tax), (General with Estate Planning Concentration) or combined JD/LL.M. students may enroll. Others may enroll with the permission of Professor Sharp/Hood. Permission should be initialed by the professor on the course enrollment form or drop/add form.
LR&LRB	Law Review members must take at least one credit hour of Law Review in each semester. Third year Law Review members (Board members or third year staff) may distribute the remaining hours (after the one in each semester) between the Fall and Winter semesters in any manner they deem fit. All Editorial Board members must sign up for 745R (Law Review Board). All Board members writing a Comment receive 5 hours of credit, except for the Business Editor, who receives 4 hours. The Editor in Chief and Managing Editors are the only Board members who may choose not to write a Comment. If they write a Comment, they receive 5 hours of credit; if not, they receive 4 hours of credit. All staff members must sign up for 745 (Law Review). All non-Board 3L Lw Review members receive 3 hours of credit. All 2L staff members receive 2 hours of credit. Regardless of when a student signs up for credit, the faculty advisor will not sign-off until the successful completion of an entire year of Law Review.
P	Permission of the professor is required to enroll. Permission should be initialed by the professor on the course enrollment form or drop/add form.
PDT	Must be Missouri Supreme Court Rule 13 eligible For definition of Rule 13 eligibility, please see Carol Pegues in the administrative suite.
PLC	Permission of Professor Berger is required to enroll. Submit resume and statement of interest to Professor Berger as soon as possible. You may not enroll without such permission. Permission should be initialed by the professor on the course enrollment form or drop/add form
PR	Professional Responsibility meets for only the first eight weeks of the semester. The schedule reflects built in make-up times should class have to be cancelled by Dean Suni. It is anticipated that class will generally meet on M & W.
R&W	Please see the R&W information sheet distributed with the course enrollment material to see if you need to enroll in Law 746 in regard to satisfying the R&W requirement. If so, you must enroll in 2 hours of credit. The reference number for registration purposes is the reference number of your supervising professor. A list of the numbers is posted on the display board outside the administrative suite.

Second	Meets second half of semester. Course begins Thursday, March 3, 2005.
TA	During the first week of the semester students only meet for the Thursday evening class. Starting with the second week, students meet in small group sessions as well as large group sessions. Each section provides the day/time for that section as well as the Thursday evening large group session. If you have a section preference, you should list it first. Since space is limited (12 students per section), also list your second and third choices on the sheet.
TAIII	Only students selected for this course following an intra school competition may register for this course. The competition is held during the fall semester and involves students enrolled in Trial Advocacy II.
TC	Tax Clinic is open to JDs who have had Federal Income Taxation. Students must sign up for the whole year. Applications to enroll may be obtained from Professor Wiseman or Acting Associate Director Sharp.
UCC	A student is required to take either Commercial Transactions, Secured Transactions, or Sales and Leasing in order to graduate
UL	750 Urban Lawyer Staff (1) – Staff members of the Urban Lawyer receive credit for writing case digests, annotations, and statutory developments, for editing articles, for editing comments and book reviews, and for participation in urban legal conferences. Research Editors of the Urban Lawyer receive additional credit for writing a major article or comment for publication in the journal. Ungraded. 750B – Urban Lawyer Board (1-5) – Members of the Urban lawyer Editorial Board, edits articles that are submitted and coordinates student written case digests and comments for publication in The Urban lawyer. The members of the Board ensure the articles, and student pieces conform to publication standards and work the articles through the production process. Board members must take at least one credit in the fall semester and can carry over the remaining allocated credits to the winter semester. Ungraded.
YR	This is a two-semester course. Students enrolling in this course must enroll in the Winter semester as well. An incomplete will be awarded after the Fall semester and credit will be awarded for both semesters at the successful completion of the Winter semester. Enrollment is by invitation only. Permission should be initialed by the professor on the course enrollment form or drop/add form
