COURSE NAME: Seminar in Employment Law

CATALOGUE NUMBER: 8814R

PROFESSOR: Berger

PREREQUISITE(S):

None

METHOD OF GRADING AND APPRAISAL OF STUDENT FOR GRADE:

Research Paper and Class Participation

SUMMARY DESCRIPTION OF COURSE:

Survey of legal environment of the employment relationship, including unjust dismissal, discrimination, workplace privacy, Fair Labor Standards Act wage and hour regulation, health and welfare benefit regulation (ERISA), and workers' compensation.

COURSE BOOK(S):

Required: Rothstein & Liebman, Employment Law (6th ed.) (Foundation Press)

RELEVANCY OF COURSE FOR CAREER PURPOSES:

Useful for labor and employment law practice

RELEVANCY OF COURSE FOR MO/MULTI-STATE BAR EXAMINATION PREPARATION:

None