COURSE NAME: Copyright

COURSE NUMBER: 8798

PROFESSOR: Holman

ESSENTIAL PREREQUISITES: N/A

DESIRABLE PREREQUISITES: IP Survey

COURSE BOOKS: TBD

METHOD OF GRADING & APPRAISAL OF STUDENT FOR GRADE: Final examination, possibly a midterm examination for part of the grade.

SUMMARY DESCRIPTION OF COURSE: This course will cover copyright law, focusing primarily on federal copyright law. Subject matter to be discussed will include copyrightable subject matter, infringement analysis, defenses such as fair use, Digital Millennium Copyright Act (DMCA), third party liability, initial ownership, transfer of ownership, licensing, and remedies.

COURSE CONTENT: See Summary Description

RELEVANCY OF COURSE FOR CAREER PURPOSES: Relevant for those interested in business law or litigation, particularly intellectual property, sports law, art law or entertainment law, or cyberlaw.