

University of Missouri-Kansas City School of Law

John W. Ragsdale, Jr.

RECENT FACULTY SCHOLARSHIP

The Chiricahua Apaches and the Assimilation Movement, 1865-1886: A Historical Examination, 30 AM. INDIAN L. REV. 291 (2006).

Individual Aboriginal Rights, 9 MICH. J. RACE & L. 323 (2004).

Treaty-Based Exclusions from the Boundaries and Jurisdiction of the States, 71 UMKC L. REV. 763 (2003).

Alternative Communities for the High Plains, 34 URB. LAW 73 (2002).

Some Philosophical, Political and Legal Implications for American Archeological and Anthropological Theory, 70 UMKC L. REV. 1 (2001).

RECENT FACULTY PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITY

Alternative Communities on the High Plain, Region Seven Conference on Environmental Law, Kansas City, Missouri, Aug. 2001.

The United Tribes of Shawnee Indians v. United States, 55 F. Supp. 2d 1238, 353 F.3d 543 (10th Cir. 2001)(presented pleadings, briefs and arguments in federal litigation) (with Sean Pickett).

Tribal Law and Sovereignty, National Conference on Tribalism, Lawrence, Kansas, Oct. 2000 (Panelist).