

Questions:

For petitioner: (Migra)

✓ 1. Why did you not bring your entire cause of action in federal court?

2. If the concern of §1983 was the competence of state courts in deciding civil rights issues, why would it make sense to create an exception to the general rule of §1738 for issues that a state court did not decide but not for issues that were decided?

For respondent: (the school board, et al.)

✓ 1. Wasn't Johnsons' Island decided after the district court opinion in this case? If it changed Ohio law in the way that you suggest, is it fair to hold petr to that development in Ohio law?
